" (2) William Rand's " 1863; 562.35; (654.91)

Note.—In making abatements in William Rand's list for 1863, there was an abatement made on John Greenfield's estate, state, county town and school tax, amounting to two hundred six dollars and fifty-six cents. This amount was assessed on money at interest after the taxes were assessed. The executors of said estate represented to the Selectmen that the above named sum was assessed on notes held by said Greenfield estate as collateral security, of which the board of Selectmen decided that said notes was not in their jurisdiction to tax, which was the reason why said abatement was made.
